Karen: FYI, my gmail account was accessed in POLAND last night :)
Karen: And people were searching my name in Stockholm a couple of weeks ago :)
me: how do you know?
Karen: My google alert popped up with an IP address in Poland.
Karen: This morning.
me: change your password
Karen: Then I have a ZABA alert if people are searching for me and where.
Karen: Yes, I just did but they may already have all my emails. They will be bored :)
